QUEEN EMMA PLACE WILL NOT BE SOLD

The Queen Emma property in Nuuanu Valley will not be sold—not at present, at least. Governor Frear this morning turned down the proposition of Mr. Isenberg to purchase the place, and it is probable that it will be reserved as a public park or for some other public purpose.

Governor Frear said this morning that the Queen Emma property is about the only land the Government owns in that section, and there is strong probability that it will be needed some time. The place, he thinks, is particularly valuable for a park. The street cars will get out that way some day, and then the park would be easily accessible.

In addition to this, its elevation gives it a different climate from that of the Government nursery in Honolulu, and the place might be used as a botanical garden, or as a combination park and botanical garden.
